

The Call of God

An Evangelistic Study for Children on the Work of God in Redemption

The goal of The Call of God is not to lead a child to “accept Jesus” or to pray a conversion prayer. The goal is actually twofold, to help children understand that: 1) God is calling people to Himself; and 2) this world is not the only world there is; there is also a spiritual world, and what happens in that world is what really counts. The five lessons in this curriculum explore the call of God and various responses to that call.

Lesson 1: God Is Calling People

Memory Verse: John 1:12

In this lesson, children will learn that the appropriate response to the call of God is to follow Him. They will also see that it is an undeserved privilege to be a child of God. It is worth more than anything else.

Lesson 2: God Solved the Sin Problem

Memory Verse: 1 Peter 3:18a

God requires that a person be pardoned from sin in order to become a member of His family. The lesson teaches that everyone is born sinful. No one meets the requirements to be in the family of God, but God sent Jesus to free His people from their sin problem so that they can be adopted into His family.

Lesson 3: God's Call

Memory Verse: John 6:37

In this lesson, students will examine the call of God in the lives of several people in the Bible to see that God calls people in many ways: 1) through His Word (Philip and the Ethiopian man; 2) through the testimony of believers (Lydia); 3) by creating spiritual interest (Nicodemus); and 4) through the conviction of sin (Zacchaeus).

Lesson 4: God's Call Is Irresistible

Memory Verse: 2 Chronicles 20:6 or 2 Chronicles 20:6b

In this lesson, as students examine the conversion of Saul (Paul), students will see that God calls even His enemies, and His people cannot resist His call. There is no way anyone will win against God.

Lesson 5: Are You Running from God?

Memory Verse: Hebrews 4:7b

In the final lesson, students will study the life of Jonah. Through his experience, they will learn that you may run from God but, if you are called by God, He will not let you go. You will either respond to the call of God, or you will resist.
