Overseas Relationship

Partnering with us means that the close relationships we have with our suppliers and factories in the UK, EU and Far East are available throughout the importing and distributing journey.

Competitive Pricing

As we work very closely with our suppliers and factories that means we have the ability to contribute to a competitive pricing and find you the best possible outcome for your brand and its products

Expert Factories

Our experts overseas pay very close attention to detail regarding every aspect of completing on order. From patent checks to QC reports, we aim to deliver the best products manufactured with the best materials available.

Personal Relationship manager

Our relationships with various experts overseas pay very close attention to all aspects of the business, and we only work with the best to allow for a top tier level of service and management to any and all of our partners.

Sourcing agency

A huge part of what we do as a sourcing agency is to provide connections between your brand and the numerous amounts of multinational supplies across the world

All our sources have gone through quality checks, and reliability procedures to ensure you will only be dealing with the best of the best when sourcing your products

Our own products

KEPLIN Air Cooler, 6L

It comes as no surprise shoppers are adding the KEPLIN Air Cooler to their baskets as temperatures soar across the UK.

The air cooler, not to be mistaken for an air conditioner, passes warm air over ice-cold water to help distribute cold around its location using an internal fan.
