

TWO THOUSAND TWENTY ONE
Ramato

Inspired by Italy - Crafted in California

GIORNATA FATTO A MANO wines are a true reflection of place and vintage without makeup or any tricks to hide behind. Winemaker Brian Terrizzi and Grape Grower Stephy Terrizzi made the choice early on that these wines would be devoid of intervention, without addition, made in clay amphora and simply put, "are what they are". The bottles were all filled by gravity, corked individually by hand, without any filtration or fining. We are aware these wines are not for everyone, and they are not for every occasion, but we feel that all of them are intrinsically unique and true to vintage.

OUR RAMATO is the first skin contact white wine we ever made ten years ago. It's sourced from our friend Mike Sinor's vineyard, Bassi Ranch. The vines are located a stone's throw from Avila Beach and are farmed with biodynamic principles. This 100% skin contact pinot grigio smells of pomegranate, mushroom, cooked strawberry, flint, watermelon candy, hibiscus. The texture is lush, crisp and light tannin. On the palate, cranberry, sour cherry camembert along with red miso, umami, radicchio, dried herbs.
