BRASSTOWN FALLS, SC 5 Unique Waterfalls in 0.2 Miles

TRAILHEAD: From Clayton Ga., travel 14 miles south on US 76 and turn right onto Brasstown Rd. in South Carolina. Travel 4.1 miles and turn right onto FS Rd.# 751. Travel 0.5 miles to parking area. Parking for 5 or 6 vehicles.

TRAIL: Follow obvious trail into the woods. In 400 feet trail splits. To left is Upper Brasstown Falls. (Wet Creek Crossing). Keep right and reach Brasstown Cascades in 250 Feet. One trail follows closely along creek side. Another trail climbs higher into the woods to reach The Veil & The Sluice. Dangerous slick rocks. Not for small children.

1. Upper Brasstown Falls

2. Brasstown Cascades

3. Brasstown Falls

4. Brasstown Veil

5. Brasstown Sluice

A great way to spend the day. Fantastic rock formations. However, this place can be crowded on warm weekends. If you go on Fri. or Sat. visit Brasstown BBQ in the evening.

Trail Difficulty Moderate. Hike at your own risk. Not suitable for small children.

GOOD FOOD NEARBY: 2.1 miles in on Brasstown Road, on the left below the road, you will find "The Gathering Place" Brasstown Creek Barbeque. Open Year-Round on Friday & Saturday nights only.
