

Record

Originating in Belgium sometime prior to 1970, Record hops feature a pleasant European aroma. Bred from an open pollination Saaz and Northern Brewer, their aroma characteristics are said to closely resemble that of the later parent, Northern Brewer.

Flavour-wise, they have been described as mild and somewhat fruity. Record has been grown in a commercial capacity in both Germany and Belgium.

Also Known As

---

Group

---

Origin
Belgium

---

Primary Use
Aroma

---

Height
Tall

---

Supply Restrictions
None

---

Key Flavours

Pleasant European aroma, mildly fruity

---

Beer Styles Guide

Ale, Lager, Pilsner, Wheat, Belgian Ale.

Growing Information

Season Maturity	Early
Ease of Harvest
Yield	1345 kg/hectare
Wilt Resistance	-
Powdery Mildew Resistance	-
Downy Mildew Resistance	-
Hop Mosaic Resistance	-

Virus Information

Arabis Mosaic Virus	-
Prunus necrotic ringspot virus	-
Hop Stunt Viroid	-
Hop Mosaic Virus	-
Hop Latent Viroid	-

Brewing Values

Alpha Acid	7 - 12%
Beta Acid	4 - 8%
Alpha – Beta Ratio	-
Hop Storage Index	-
Co-Humulone	25 - 27%
Total Oils	- mL/100g
Myrcene	-
Humulene	-
Caryophyllene	-
Farnesene	-

Health Grade

