Kindergarten Homework Activities

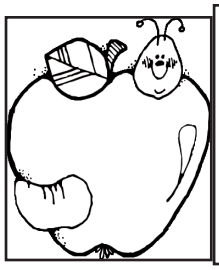
Week of August 24-28, 2009

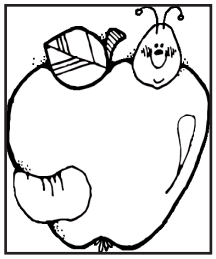
Dismissal is at 11:35 through Sept. 19. Beginning Sept. 21, we will dismiss at 1:20.

Don't forget to send your child's binder to school every day! And also, each child needs a backpack that is big enough to hold a binder, and should bring it to school each day. Thanks!

Instructions:
Please review this sheet and set aside a special time each day to work with your child. An adult needs to sign each activity after it is completed. Please send this paper back on Friday so that it may be recorded.

Monday	No School Today.
Tuesday	Tell someone three things that you did at school today. What was your favorite activity? Practice writing your name on the back of this sheet. Can you write it with a capital letter at the beginning and lower case letters after that? Remember not to write your name with all capital letters. sign here _____
Wednesday	Today is the second day of school. Do you know your teacher's name? Tell someone her name. Have someone read you a story today and write it on your Read Aloud chart for September. The Read Aloud Chart is an important part of the homework and is also noted on the report card. Return it completed at the end of September. (There will not be a separate chart for August.) Parent Signature _____
Thursday	Practice counting out loud for an adult. How high can you count with no mistakes? How many objects can you count with no mistakes? Write the numbers on the lines. _____ Counting aloud (with no objects) _____ Counting objects Parent Signature _____
Friday	Return the homework today. Did you remember to return all of the important papers from the first day of school? Don't forget to start filling in the reading chart!





A note to parents: We realize that this homework is ridiculously easy. It always seems to parents that it starts too easy (gotta start somewhere!) and but then picks up speed to the point of being too hard for many. So enjoy it while you can!
