Dodo

has been around for over six years, and during that time, our team has created over 200 different jigsaw puzzles and board games for kids.

The company, started by parents looking for the best toys for their kids, has grown into a large and dedicated team. Dodo's core values: comprehensive development of children, environmental friendliness, and local production support.

The entire process of creating our products takes place in Ukraine — from the first illustrations to printing. But the finished product is enjoyed by children from all over the world. Dodo puzzles and games can be found in many countries.

Olena and Dmytro Terpal, founders Dodo Company

As our office and production are located in Kharkiv, the full-scale invasion had a profound impact on our work. Many employees had to leave their homes and move to safer places. Missiles fell near our office, warehouse, and printing house. But we persevered and managed to set up production and shipment of products within a month.

Now our team is working hard from different parts of the world for the main goals: to support the economy of Ukraine and make kids happy with their favorite puzzles and games.
