

Who or What Am I?

1. I was the landlord of Scrooby Inn. Who am I? _____
2. I was the powerful person who thought all the people of England should worship my way, and in my churches. Who am I? _____
3. I am the country in which the Pilgrims found a home when they first left England. What am I? _____
4. When they left England, I am the city where the Pilgrims landed in Holland. What am I? _____
5. We are strong walls of earth and stone, built to protect Dutch cities from the sea. What are we? _____
6. We are the broad waterways that run around and through Dutch towns, and are often used instead of roads. What are we? _____
7. We are the large birds that build nests on Dutch chimneys. What are we? _____
8. We are large structures with four long arms that move in a circle, used to grind meal, saw wood, and pump water. What are we? _____
9. I was the young friend of the Brewsters, who rented a house and had it ready for them when they arrived in Holland. Who am I? _____
10. We are the flowers that the Dutch love more than any others. What are we? _____
11. I am the Dutch city the pilgrims moved to after they had been in Holland for awhile. What am I? _____
12. I was the pastor of the Pilgrims' church in Holland. Who am I? _____

Word Bank:

- | | | | |
|-------------|--------------------|-----------------|-------------|
| • Amsterdam | • William Bradford | • King James | • canals |
| • storks | • William Brewster | • dikes | • windmills |
| • Leiden | • Holland | • John Robinson | • tulips |