

Canada

Capital Ottawa

Language English and French

Government Federal parliamentary constitutional monarchy

Currency Canadian dollar

Area 9,984,670 sq. km.

Population 35,151,728

Key Cities Toronto, Montreal,

Vancouver, Edmonton, Quebec

Kitchener, Winnipeg, Hamilton

Calgary

Rivers & Other Bodies of Water Hudson Bay,

McKenzie River, Saint Lawrence River,

Atlantic Ocean, Arctic Ocean, Lake Ontario

Products & Natural Resources timber, oil coal, natural gas, fisheries, iron, minerals, vehicles, computers,

precious gems, wood, aluminum,

electrical machinery

Description of Land & Climate

Canada is the second largest country in the world.

Canada has more lakes than the rest of the world's lakes combined.

Canada consumes more macaroni and cheese than any other nation in the world.

Canada has the largest coastline in the world.

Add a picture or drawing here

Interesting Information

Winter is very cold in most places with temperatures often below zero degrees Celsius. Snow covers the ground from around December to March or April.

Canada has many different types of landscape, including high mountains, prairie grasslands, different types of forests, and arctic tundra.