Cyrus watches in India

WatchTime India celebrated the launch of Cyrus watches in the country by getting together watch collectors and enthusiasts for an evening of fine watches, whiskey, and cigars at Delhi's The Lodhi. With the aim of familiarising aficionados with the brand, the evening showcased top models from Cyrus, along with four exceptional carnet pieces.

The relatively young independent brand was established in 2010, and with a focus on 'Conquest of Innovation' has developed movements in partnership with master watchmaker Jean-Francois Mojon, the name behind some of the most creative watches today. During the course of the evening, CEO of the brand, Walter Ribaga, walked the guests through the watches, including some of the brand's most unique timepieces like the Klepcys Vertical Skeleton Tourbillon and 3D Klepcys Mars. Other watches showcased included the Klepcys Moon, DICE Racing, Klepcys GMT Retrograde Titanium, and Klepcys Chronograph Steel. Guests were seen trying on the brand's creations and appreciating their craftsmanship and mechanics. ○
