WHAT MAKES OUR OVERSOYED™ HANDMADE CANDLES THE BEST?

OVERSOYED CANDLES ARE HANDMADE TO ORDER

Each and every OverSoyed™ candle is made-to-order in our workshop just outside of Pittsburgh, PA and is hand poured with our own signature blend of all natural soy wax. We've spent over 10 years perfecting the best combination of ingredients to ensure that our customer receive only the best candles available on the market. And unlike "corporate candle companies" where your candle never touches human hands, we feel that our artisan process provides our customers with a far superior product!

OVERSOYED CANDLES ARE MADE WITH 100% ALL NATURAL SOY WAX

OverSoyed™ Candles are made with domestic soybeans, a natural, renewable source grown in many US regions by local farmers. Alternatively, Paraffin Candles are made from petroleum, a nonrenewable source that contains carcinogenic substances which may be released into the air while burning. Using candles made from soy supports local agriculture and farmers, allowing them to make money, grow their operations and keep our economy thriving.

OVERSOYED CANDLES ARE CLEANER BURNING

OverSoyed™ candles, handmade with our custom blend of soy waxes, burn cleaner with little to no soot released as they're lit. Paraffin candles, however, often create a significant amount of dark, black soot that collects on the jar, as well as on your walls and other surfaces of the home. Our soy wax is 100% non-toxic, so there's no fear in releasing harmful chemicals into the air you breathe as they burn.

OVERSOYED CANDLES ARE LONG LASTING

OverSoyed™ Candles last longer than a paraffin candle of the same size. The reason behind the longevity of soy candles is the slower burning time and cooler burning temperature of our custom soybean-based wax blend. Don't be fooled by cheaper paraffin candles! You may pay more for a soy candle initially, but the longer-lasting burn means you won't have to buy new candles as often. Soy wax is biodegradable, making it an investment that is more beneficial to the environment.

OVERSOYED CANDLES HAVE FABULOUS FRAGRANCES

Unlike paraffin candles, whose scent throw tend to be dull and flat, our soy candles hold a much higher fragrance load. Because they burn more slowly, the scent is gradually released, creating more pleasant atmosphere for most people. OverSoyed™ has the world's largest selection of fragrances online. And with over 2,000 to choose from, we're sure you'll find a favorite!
