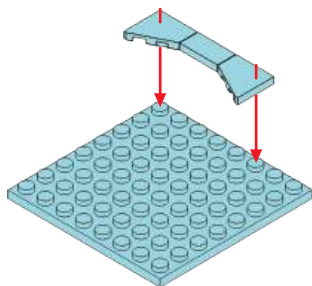

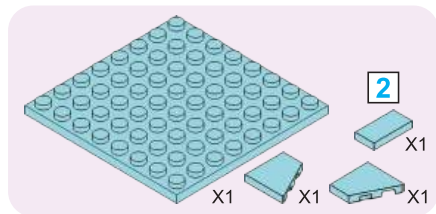

Diagram illustrating a 1:1 ratio between two groups of shapes.

- Group 1 (Left): Two rectangles, each labeled with a blue box containing the number 2.
- Group 2 (Right): A long horizontal rectangle labeled with a blue box containing the number 6, and a stack of three horizontal rectangles labeled with a blue box containing the number 2.

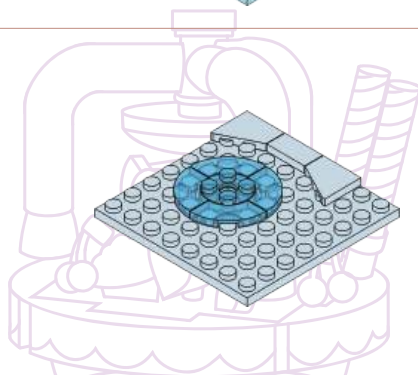

The ratio is indicated as 1:1.

Below the first group, there are two more rectangles, each labeled with a blue box containing a decimal value: 1.4 and 2.2.
