

The many ways you will save money!

We guarantee all the points made below, or free replacement material will be sent to you!

- Do it yourself, no contractor needed
- If installation instructions are followed, we guarantee you cannot mess it up
- No Messy Glue is needed because all our planks offer an industrial strength pre-applied adhesive
- Saves you time compared to a standard glue down installation
- Better flooring acoustics – turn down the noise
- No gaps with click and lock profile

How to keep this guarantee effective

- Follow installation instructions exactly
- Document each step of the installation process with photo's
 - If we do not have photos of your installation, the
- If you do run into any problems with installation, send your order number and photos following the process to info@fromtheforest.com and we will send you new material