Picture books are the first portals into a child's imagination

Kirstin is a writer, publisher, innovation advisor, and mother of two. She loves to write stories that are joyful and fun to read.

After realising how few picture books featured mixed-heritage children like her own boys, she decided to write one inspired by them.

Within six months, Kirstin was featured at Barnes Children's Literature Festival, and Waterstones stores.

With over 1,000 copies of her books sold nationwide, Kirstin is a breakthrough author with a colourful imagination that inspires and delights young readers

"We absolutely loved our visit from Kirstin, her engaging and charismatic personality made the children hooked before she had even turned the first page of her wonderful book. The children were immersed by her story telling skills and used the storyline in their play for the rest of the week!"

An author visit from Kirstin includes:

- Age-appropriate introduction to who Kirstin is and how she became an author
- Engaging and interactive read-through of the book, including a pdf version to project on a screen
- My Brother is a Vampire comes with a song which Kirstin plays on her ukulele
- Age-appropriate discussion about the book with the children after the read-through
- Time to answer questions
- A free sticker for every child* (physical visits only)
- Free activity and colouring pdf for teachers to print out and share with the class
- A discount for parents on Kirstin's books

My Brother is a Vampire

Ages 3-6, EYFS

A fun and memorable rhyming story (and song) about an older brother who is convinced that his younger brother is a vampire. Inspired by my own children, this light-hearted story shares how things aren't always as they seem. Coupled with an original song, your kids will love guessing whether their own siblings are vampires too.

What kids say: "I think the little brother is cheeky like my sister and I am like the werewolf brother"

What teachers say: "We loved how fun and engaging this book is. The illustrations are very appealing to the younger children, and especially love the repeated sections in the book. It is a firm favourite in our school library"

Key Themes: Siblings, Make-believe, Hallowe'en, Family, Rhyming & repetition

My Family is So Scottish

Ages 5-7, KS1

A fresh and exciting picture book celebrating Scottish culture

Written in joyful rhyme, My Family is so Scottish includes over 40 references of Scottish traditions, words and food. Meet this very Scottish family through an inclusive and colourful representation of what it is to be Scottish.

What kids say: "The family looks like they have so much fun together" "I loved learning about the different Scottish things"

What teachers say: "An excellent and fun way of showing pride in your culture and heritage. Our children really enjoyed the story and we discussed many themes from the book about what makes them proud about their own families."

Key Themes: Families, culture, traditions, siblings, pride.
