To view the contents of this CD we recommend the use of Adobe® Acrobat Reader™. You can select a page from the Index, or use the “forward” and “back” buttons, or the scroll bar, to browse through the pages. You may also select a page number by typing it into the page number box, provided the box is displayed on your screen. Note: the book’s page numbers are reflected in the digital edition page numbers.

We have also formatted the text of this book, including hand editing the OCRred text to improve the recognition accuracy, for computer text searches using Acrobat Reader™ and enabled our FastFind technology to speed up searches. While the process we have used to generate the searchable index for this book achieves accuracies in the high 90% area it should be assumed that errors remain.

About this CD.

A gold mine of genealogical information about the inhabitants of York County including, of course the City of Toronto and its Home District. Assembled by the Beers Publishing company in 1907 this significant, and weighty, book contains the biographies (and frequently the obituaries) of almost 2,000 families from all walks of life.

The biographies were placed by any individual, or family, who could afford the subscription to the publication and who wished their family name and history to be perpetuated. This book contains 673 pages of text and 153 full plate illustrations. Having been written by the individual or families themselves the information recorded is as accurate as a researcher can hope to find for this time. This is further emphasized by the precautions the publisher took to ensure accuracy, vis. "In nearly every instance the material composing the sketches was gathered from those immediately interested, and then submitted in type-written form for correction and revision."

The estimate of almost 2,000 family entries doesn't represent the limit of the number of people whose names can be found within this book. Based on a family history identifying four grandparents, a man, his siblings and at least one wife, with their union generating an average of four children of which about half are married by the time the biography is recorded, the count of individuals named rises dramatically to about 27,500, and this is a conservative estimate.

As well as identifying the immediate family to the subject the biography will usually discuss the subject's upbringing, education, business or professional involvements. Also usually recorded are any significant events in his life, his religion and his political and fraternal commitments.

Fully computer searchable, we have "hand" reviewed and corrected the OCR result to maximize the chance of finding your search term. The 153 full plate illustrations, or portraits, of subjects of the biographies have been carefully reproduced for maximum clarity in the CD format.

We have also included the index of subject names from the book in the sampler available on our Downloads page so you can check if your family appears.

PREFACE

¶ The importance of placing in book form biographical history—both for its immediate worth and for its value to coming generations—is admitted by all thinking people; and within the past decade there has been a growing interest in this commendable means of perpetuating biography and family genealogy.

¶ That the public should avail itself of the privileges afforded by a work of this nature needs no assertion at our hands. Cicero, the Roman orator and philosopher, has said that “for a man to be ignorant of what happened before his birth is to be always a child.” Carlyle says “there is no life of a man faithfully recorded, but is a heroic poem of its sort, rhymed or unrhymed.” Emerson substantially says the history of any country resolves itself into the biographies of its stout, earnest, progressive and representative citizens. No truths are more obvious. This medium, then, serves more than a single purpose; while it perpetuates biography and family genealogy, it records history, much of which would be preserved in no other way.

¶ In presenting the Commemorative Biographical Record to its patrons, the publishers have to acknowledge, with gratitude, the encouragement and support their enterprise has received, and the willing assistance rendered in enabling them to surmount the many unforeseen obstacles to be met with in the production of a work of this character. In nearly every instance the material composing the sketches was gathered from those immediately interested, and then submitted in type-written form for correction and revision. The volume, which is one of generous amplitude, is placed in the hands of the public with the belief that it will be found a valuable addition to the library, as well as an invaluable contribution to the historical literature of the Province of Ontario.

ket, and when this partnership was dissolved Mr. Snarr embarked in business on his own account, first as manager and later as full partner of the firm of Cowan, Pearson & Co. He continued with this business until his death.

In 1849 Mr. Snarr married Miss Harriet Shuttleworth, born in England in 1822, daughter of Edmund and Charlotte (Rodler) Shuttleworth. They came to County York in 1831 and settled at Mt. Albert, where the father took up land and improved a farm, dying there at the age of eighty-four years. The mother died in 1866, also aged eighty-four years. In political matters the father was a Reformer. Both parents belonged to the Methodist Church. They had children as follows: Edmund, Henry, George, Robert, Samuel, Elizabeth, Catherine, Charlotte, Eliza, and Harriet (Mrs. Snarr).

Children as follows were born to Mr. and Mrs. Snarr: Catherine, wife of Edmund Clark; William, deceased; Erastus, deceased, who married Margaret Manchee and had children—Winifred, Harold, Francis, Ada and Percy; Herbert, deceased; Charlotte; Edmund, deceased; Ada, wife of B. H. Montgomery, and they have children—George and Henrietta; and Evelyn.

Mr. Snarr was a Reformer in politics; in religion he was a member of the Congregational Church.

GEORGE HENRY HASTINGS, who died at his home in Deer Park Nov. 5, 1896, was a well-known and highly esteemed citizen of Toronto. He was born in London, England, March 31, 1844, and there and in Hall Place Collegiate School, in Bexley, Kent, he received his education.

In 1870 Mr. Hastings came to Canada, previous to which time he had been in the employ of the British Government. For a short period he engaged in business in Peterboro, whence he came to Toronto, where for a number of years he served in the capacity of manager for various manufacturing companies. In 1874 he purchased the business of Henderson & Bostwick, which he successfully conducted until his death, the product of the factory being straw and felt hats. The plant was located on Balmuto street. Employment was given to 200 people, and the enterprise was very successful. Mr. Hastings was a lover of fine horses, having some of the finest horseflesh to be found in Toronto. He was the first to import the Hackney breed into Canada, and was known far and wide as a breeder of that strain, which he raised wholly for his own pleasure, although on rare occasions, when he could be induced to sell, he received fancy prices.

Mr. Hastings was public-spirited and progressive, and was actively interested in all movements which his judgment convinced him were for the good of the community. He was an active member of the Board of Trade. Generous to a fault, he never turned a deaf ear to the needy.

Mr. Hastings was the owner of a great deal of property at Deer Park, where he erected the beautiful residence, surrounded by a large lawn and shade trees, in which Mrs. Hastings now resides with her two daughters. Much of his success he attributed to his wife's good judgment and hearty co-operation.

In Toronto Mr. Hastings married Miss Georgina Dollery, daughter of William and Salena A. (Thorne) Dollery, the former of whom was for many years a conductor on the Northern railway. To Mr. and Mrs. Hastings were born children as follows: Geraldine Mary, of Deer Park; George, who resides in Chicago; Fannie, of Deer Park; and Arthur B. F., who lives at Deer Park. Mr. Hastings was a member of the Church of England, to the faith of which Mrs. Hastings also adheres. In politics he was a Conservative. He was a member of St. George's Society, and of the Albany Club, and was both popular and prominent, enjoying universal esteem.

ALFRED JAMES PEERLESS, whose death occurred in Toronto in January, 1887, was one of that city's successful business men, for a number of years extensively engaged in pattern-making. Mr. Peerless was born in England, son of William Burges and Fanny Peerless, both of whom died in the old country.

Alfred J. Peerless received his education in the schools of his native locality, and when thirty years of age came to Canada. Stopping for a time at Toronto, he next went to London, Ont., where he became foreman of the pattern shop for the well-known firm of Elliott & Burns, continuing thus for three years. Deciding to engage in business on his own account, Mr. Peerless returned to Toronto, and until his death was engaged in the pattern-making business with great success. Shortly after locating in the city Mr. Peerless built a home on Lippincott street, but after his death his widow sold that property, purchasing her present home, at No. 16 Beatrice avenue.

Mr. Peerless married Miss Elizabeth Stevens, who was born in Sussex, England, daughter of Charles and Eve (Gerange) Stevens, both of whom were born in England and there spent their lives. Mr. Stevens was a tailor in Sussex for many years, the business which he found-
