

Did you know...

Electric eels can release powerful electric charges of up to 650 volts!

First place your steel sheet under the drawing. Next, fill in the circles and follow the dotted lines with your Circuit Scribe conductive ink pen. Place your LED and power modules where indicated. Turn on the power and place your colored-in electric eel drawing on top and watch the lightning bolts light up!