

THE REPÊCHAGE DIFFERENCE

The Repêchage difference is our commitment to being the best in every aspect of the skin care business, from creating the best seaweed-based products to providing the most in-depth education and training.

1 Commitment to Professional Esthetics

Lydia Sarfati, Founder and CEO of Repechage, is proud to be a licensed esthetician and has dedicated her career to work with estheticians and the professional beauty industry. Her passion is to ensure that when you purchase a Repechage product, that you have the resources to seek a professional recommendation so that you know how best to care for your specific skincare needs.

Repêchage® is proud to be exclusively available through professional skin care centers, spas, medical centers, salons and through repechage.com, all staffed with qualified estheticians and beauty professionals who are available to answer your questions.

2 Commitment to Education

Repêchage® is committed to education. Our advanced esthetic training programs are available globally. Our extensive educational programs improve the professional industry standards so that you get the best out of your salon and spa experience.

"I want to raise the bar on education and give every esthetician the tools she needs to achieve success. I also want every esthetician and beauty therapist to be proud of her profession."— Lydia Sarfati

3 Commitment to Salon Success

Repêchage® has one of the strongest salon support systems available in the beauty industry. Our extensive business support programs help our salons and spas focus on what's most important – providing the best treatments and services to you!

4 Commitment to Excellence

Repêchage® is made proudly in the United States of America with the finest ingredients from around the world. Repêchage® is a global experience. We are presently in over 40 countries worldwide, with our corporate headquarters and manufacturing facility located in Secaucus NJ, right outside NYC.

5 Commitment to Developing the Best Products

Our research and development team is committed to creating only the very best products using the most advanced ingredients bringing the greatest results. Our in-house laboratories are headed by our Director of Research and Development Dr. Alexander Hammer. Our in-house quality control systems check every batch twice to ensure the finest, purist quality of product. We stand by our commitment to delivering the finest products, ingredients and formulations.
