Tile Redi upgrades interactive website

Friday, November 7, 2014

PRESS RELEASE: [Coral Springs, Fla.] Tile Redi, leading manufacturer and marketer of leak-proof, tile-able one-piece shower pans and related shower construction products, has improved its website to be an even more user-friendly 24/7 source to visitors.

FULL STORY

The screenshot shows the Tile Redi website interface. At the top, there's a navigation bar with links for Home, About Us, Products, Services, and Contact Us. Below the navigation bar, there are two main product sections. The first section is for 'Redi Neo™' and features a photograph of a shower pan installation. The second section is for 'Redi Trench™' and features a photograph of a shower pan installation. Both sections include descriptive text and a 'Learn More' button.
