Dear Diary, It's Me!
thoughts, secrets, memories, & dreams
Out and About

Me and my bike on the road, the sky above us,
and a head full of thoughts . . .
Tricky Questions!

What would you do if you found a wallet full of money?

You’re home alone with a fridge full of delicious food for a family dinner the next night. You’re hungry. What do you do?

If you found two tickets for a concert, who would you bring with you?
If you could choose the number of your siblings, how many would you have?

You saw your best friend breaking the rules, but everybody blamed someone else. What would you do?

What is your dream job?
Which Would You Pick?

Car or train?
Chicken or fish?
Sea or mountain?
Boat or plane?
Snow or sunshine?
Fog or rain?
Ice cream or frozen yogurt?
Bike or skateboard?
Gray or brown?
Stripes or plaid?
Dots or flowers?
Sun or shadow?
Autumn or spring?
Last year or next year?
Dog or cat?
Movie or TV?
Ski or snowboard?
Volleyball or basketball?
Swimming pool or ocean?
Summer or winter holidays?
Heat or cold?
Stairs or elevator?
Math or English?
Coke or Pepsi?
Beef or broccoli?
Vanilla or chocolate?
Some Secrets Are Supersecret!

Write them on the opposite page, then attach a piece of paper over it using masking tape.

If you want you can also draw a key on top, as if it were a real safety box. Copy or cut the one you like among the ones below . . . or create your own key!
Your secrets are now safe. You can decide when and with whom you want to share them.
The world needs more good news. Think of something inspiring you could tell a stranger. If you were to put that message in a bottle and throw it into the sea, what would you write?
