Who will help the little red elf?

Everyone knows elves are industrious and always helping others. But the same cannot be said for reindeer who like to snooze in the straw, or penguins who like to relax in the bath, or hibernating hares. When the Little Red Elf finds some pinecones, she asks for help planting them, watering them, and then decorating the tree that grows from them. Not surprisingly, her friends decline.

It isn't difficult for the Little Red Elf to stay positive—but on Christmas Day, after she's cleaned all by herself and prepared treats all by herself, who will help the Little Red Elf open all the presents under the beautiful tree?
