About Us

Hi, I'm Justin Toal, founder and CEO of Aduco – Welcome!

I grew up in a family where natural health was important, and for more than 25 years of my life, I've devoted myself to holistic medicine.

Aduco \ ʌdʊko \ comes from the Latin word Educo, which means to educate, lead forth, and develop from within.

I founded Aduco in the spirit of giving you the best tools, products, and education so that you may transform lives for the better. At Aduco, you get a variety of product lines that work great together to create protocols. Our products not only work well on their own, but also compliment products you may already have in your medicine cabinet.

Here, we honor the relationship between plants and humans as we help you to reconnect with the power of nature to reach your highest potential. We hope that our decades of expertise and insight on applying the best in natural medicine will help you heal more people.

In health,

Turmeric PhytoRev is an herbal supplement formulated with a patented and clinically trialed turmeric extract. This unique extract contains standardized levels of curcuminoids combined with soluble fiber extract from fenugreek seed to enhance bioavailability. Curcuminoids collectively describes the biologically active and distinctive yellow pigments from turmeric rhizomes—curcumin is the most well-known and most studied.

The challenge when using a turmeric extract is overcoming the naturally poor absorption, fast metabolism, and rapid excretion of curcumin/curcuminoids, without using very high doses.

By impregnating fenugreek-derived soluble fiber with curcuminoids, this extract overcomes these challenges, significantly enhancing bioavailability up to 45.5 times compared to standard curcuminoids.

ActivBinder is made with Bentonite clay, which has a drawing effect—the enterosorbent properties of calcium bentonite clay allows it to pass through the gut where it can bind to and absorb various substances, including toxins. Acting as a selective enterosorbent, bentonite clay does not affect the serum concentrations of important vitamins and nutrient minerals in humans, while promoting healthy bowel motility.

- Collinsonia root: Native to North America, Collinsonia root is an herb historically used to support vascular tissue and water balance, including support of the bladder, kidneys, and digestive mucosal tissues. It is an alternative tonic to aid healthy renal function and gastrointestinal motility.
- Ox bile: Our ox bile extract powder has been prepared by a low-temperature dehydration process to preserve bile acids and active constituents. Our freeze-dried glandular powders are manufactured from raw glands of 100% New Zealand cattle. Freeze-drying is a process of removing water from the raw gland that ensures the finished dried product retains as much of the biological activity as possible.

Open Regulation (roll-on Wheat Germ oil) is a soothing nutritive oil for topical application for general skin health. When applied externally, Wheat Germ oil promotes healthy blood circulation and can be helpful in the treatment of dry, cracked skin. As a natural antioxidant, it assists natural skin repair and premature aging associated with sun exposure.

Wheat Germ oil is extracted from the wheat kernel using the cold press method to ensure antioxidant properties are optimally preserved. Because cold-pressed, raw, unrefined extracts degrade quickly when exposed to extremes in temperature fluctuation, oxidization, and light, this product should be refrigerated or stored in a cool, dark place. Wheat Germ oil has a shelf life of 6 months when stored properly.
