

From our simple feedback and beginnings in 1977 as a single lane packaging machine designer and manufacturer for coffee, ActionPac has continuously evolved by integrating customer industry advancements.

After 45 years of innovation, our packaging machines have become the go-to choice for 1 in 3 coffee roasters worldwide.

Take your coffee filling experience to the next level with our automatic coffee loader! The ACVAC is the newest accessory in the ME109 Series.

Say goodbye to the hassle of manually transferring bulk coffee from the floor hopper to the scale.

Whether it's ground coffee, brittle dark roast beans or even green beans, this American made stainless steel pneumatic loading elevator will bring efficiency to your production, increase your output and your operators will thank you .

Upgrade your coffee operation today with the automatic coffee loader!
