AKE & HUMPHRIS

Old Vine Chablis - £22.99

This charming Chablis, Domaine de La Motte, Cuvee Vieilles Vignes comes highly recommended by Des. The old vines do something magical here. Made only in small quantities; the apple note is deeper with extra weight on the palate giving the maximum bang for your buck.

Vintage Champagne - £39.99

Paul recommends the indulgent Pierre Mignon, Brut Vintage Prestige, Champagne 2015. Laced with aromas of white peach, dried fruit and toasted almonds, its persistent, delicate bubbles reflect its finesse, while its butter and brioche character indicate its development.

Pretty in Pink - £8.99

The bright and juicy Casal Mendes Rosé comes recommended by Tara to bring a ray of sunshine to the season. This wine is jam packed with summer berry fruitiness, alluding to a touch of sweetness. It has a lovely zesty spritz which leaves your tastebuds clean and ready for more.

Rioja to Rock You - £17.99

Phil has picked out the tremendous Tobia Seleccion de Autor. With notes of bright cherry and winter spice, both warming and broad, this is a deeply satisfying dark wine with impeccable structure and long-lasting flavour. This is a perfect match for any roast dinner.

Supercharged Saperavi - £19.99

This gorgeous Georgian Bedoba Saperavi is Jamie's top tip for a big, hearty red this Christmas. It is complex and swoony with notes of sweet cherry, chocolate and a dash of incense. It's a seamless wine, both classy and voluptuous, making for fabulous fireside drinking.

Divine Dessert Wine - £28.99

This astoundingly good Monbazillac Chateau Tirecul La Graviere is Simon's pick for the season. The intensity and diversity of this wine's welcoming flavours make it a sheer delight in the glass with notes of orange peel marmalade and saffron aromatics. Silky, smooth and moreish—don't miss it.
