

THE UNION PROJECT

Role: Part Time Photographer

12-24 hours per week.

About the role

The Union Project is a renowned retailer known for its exceptional curation of fashion and lifestyle goods. We're on the lookout for an individual who can play a pivotal role in bringing some of our storytelling to life through a lens. Working along our small creative team, you will be organised and overseeing regular shoots to fill our socials, website and email activity.

About you

You will be highly skilled and organised within photography and post-production, familiar with working to commercial deadlines and adapting your style to suit the businesses needs. With experience in a studio as well as on location you will be fully competent with managing a lighting set-up in the studio.

Application Process

If you're ready to make a meaningful contribution to our team, we encourage you to apply. Join us at The Union Project and contribute to our mission of delivering excellence in everything we do.

If you would like to discuss this role please contact careers@theunionproject.com with the information outline below.

You will be required to upload a supporting statement, setting out how you meet the selection criteria, CV, portfolio and the names and contact details of two referees as part of your application.

Committed to equality and valuing diversity

Benefits

Monthly Uniform allowance;

Employee Discount

25 Days Holiday (prorated for part time appointments).

Support with further education relating to job (subsidised).

Staff Outings.

Notes

Pre-employment screening.

If you are offered the post, the offer will be subject to standard pre-employment checks. You will be asked to provide: proof of your right-to-work in the UK; and (if we haven't done so already) we will contact the referees you have nominated. You will also be asked to complete a health declaration so that you can tell us about any health conditions or disabilities for which you may need us to make appropriate adjustments.

Equality of opportunity

Entry into employment with The Union Project and progression within employment will be determined only by personal merit and the application of criteria which are related to the duties of each particular post. In all cases, ability to perform the job will be the primary consideration. No applicant or member of staff shall be discriminated against because of age, disability, gender reassignment, marriage or civil partnership, pregnancy or maternity, race, religion or belief, sex, or sexual orientation.
