

Crossword Buzzle

Did you know that bees are the littlest and biggest links in our food chain? And that insect pollination supports about 70% of all crop species, such as apples, strawberries, and cocoa? Insects even support our economy. Most importantly, pollination is vital to a healthy and thriving environment. Luckily, we can all do something to help out our earth and our friendly pollinators!

Pollinator's are the bee's knees!

You talking about me?

Across

2. A busy garden insect
4. Using this spray hurts pollinators
5. An animal's home
7. A small bird that moves fast
10. Found in a flower, sometimes makes us sneeze
11. A very colorful and beautiful pollinator
12. Yum! Many pollinated flowers grow into these.

Down

1. Sweet liquid found in flowers
3. An animal that helps pollinate flowers
6. Sweet! This treat is made possible by a pollinator.
8. A flying mammal that likes cactus flowers
9. What popular show helped boost Mikaila and Me & the Bees Lemonade popularity?