

Ron Carter Board Director

Ron Carter is an accomplished professional who has had a diversified background in public service having deep experience in Operations Management, Housing and Public Safety, Crime Prevention, Economic and Business Development, Grant Funding, Veteran Affairs, Construction and Property Management, Strategic Planning and Policy Advisory. He currently serves as an educator within the Chicago Public School system where he teaches Physics, Chemistry, and English. He also teaches entrepreneurship to individuals and small business owners.

Ron earned his MBA degree at Fort Benjamin Harrison, Ball State University, and his bachelor's degree in economics from the University of Pittsburg. Ron has obtained various licenses and certifications, namely in Real Estate and Financial Management.

Ron is a sports enthusiast and a retired NBA player, who played for the Los Angeles Lakers and the Indiana Pacers. He is also a retired veteran having served as army captain. He is the proud recipient of the White House Visionary Leadership Award. He serves on multiple boards and resides with his family on the South side of Chicago.