EVENT INFORMATION

OUR STORY

Il Buco al Mare is Donna Lennard's newest restaurant located in Amagansett at 231 Main Street.

Inspired by our sister restaurant, Bottega il Buco, in Ibiza, Spain, and our past pop-up in Montauk, the restaurant offers ingredient-driven cuisine—a telltale to the original il Buco.

Il Buco al Mare's simple, relaxed menu presents the best local seafood & produce— Ancient grain focaccias, imported tinned fish from the Iberian Peninsula and Italy, and seasonal fare from our wood burning oven.

The unique wine list highlights small, multi-generational producers focusing on coastal regions and wines touched by the sea to capture the feeling of 'al mare'.

EVENTS

Il Buco al Mare offers a Mediterranean-inspired dining experience in the heart of Amagansett.

The restaurant's light wood accents and accordion glass doors, which wrap the side of the restaurant, create a welcoming space filled with natural light, perfect for hosting daytime events and seated dinners.
