Welcome to Let's Yori!

Your Kitchen away from Home

Let's Yori! Is the first cooking studio in Singapore that focuses on Korean cuisine — designed to be a welcoming space for people from all walks of life to meet and cook at a common table, where everyone bonds over stories behind ingenious food.

Group of friends, family or colleagues who wish to have fun cooking together in a much bigger space than a home kitchen can come together at the studio kitchen where they are welcomed to use all equipment, tableware, cookware and utensils, and dine in the communal table together to enjoy a freshly cooked meal.

Let's Yori! Is more than just a space, it's everyone's kitchen in the city, to co-cook, co-create and interact with people who enjoy the richness of experience and the stories behind it.
