N.I.C.E Pack utility bag

"The N.I.C.E Pack is my new favorite travel accessory and gift for people who love to travel. It's great for on the go because it stays close to your body and can hold your passport, money, vaccination card, lip gloss, airplane eye mask, and more. It also comes in so many colors for all your friends so it's a fabulous gift. I'm obsessed, it's so cute!" —Mindy Weiss, Mindy Weiss Party Consultants, whose clients have included Justin and Hailey Bieber, Ellen DeGeneres and Portia de Rossi, and the Kardashians
