

the hit list

What's cooking on our kitchen wishlist this month

the mixer

The classic KitchenAid stand mixer goes dark in this limited-edition release in Black Tie, $1299, from eands.com.au.

the tool

As the leader in pasta machines and accessories, the name Marcato is synonymous with authentic Italian food. Their ravioli tablet, $169, is a clever mould that allows you to make stuffed ravioli in minutes. Head to cg.dksh.com.au.

the tiles

Add a pop of colour with the pastel tones of The Tile Palette's 'Rustic II' square tiles, $120/sqm, from thetilepalette.com.au.

the chair

With a playful shape and simple, sturdy design, the 'Chips' chair by Ben-Tovim Design is a go-to dining staple. From $515, go to b-td.com.

the plates

Inspired by nights in Paris with her sister, the latest range from Kaz Morton Ceramics is a study in painterly artistry. The 'Sister Stories' plates are $90 each and are available at greenhouseinteriors.com.au.

open & shut

Ideal for hiding away clutter, the Hartô 'Fanny' wall-mounted shelf offers open display space, too. It's $1240, go to clickonfurniture.com.au.

CLOCK WORK

Telling the time becomes a stylish affair with the sleek brass 'Radial' clock, $75, from designbythem.com.

the finishing touch

Create a soft and inviting sleeping zone with the addition of a plush cushion. 1. Pompom cushion cover, $40, &inkco.andinkco.bigcartel.com. 2. 'Sumi' cushion cover, $46.90, Città.cittadesign.com. 3. 'Monte #27' cushion, $195, Pampa.pampa.com.au.

BURNING UP

Turn up the heat with the invigorating aroma of essential oils. Timeless Carrara marble and copper add easy elegance, courtesy of the 'Synergy' oil diffuser, $169.95, from additionstudio.com.
