

at home, Byron Bay

1 Addition Studio I love Addition's travertine and stone homewares and ritual objects for my home and studio. Additionstudio.com

2 For Artists Only The new Byron Bay store has a fun, summery mix of brands by both local and international designers. Forartistsonly.com

3 Pampa The most beautiful Argentinean rugs handwoven by artisans and made with 100 per cent raw sheep and llama wool and dyed using natural dyes. Pampa.com.au

4 Little Company A quick LED light treatment a few times a week keeps my skin vibrant and is also a great way to include a short meditation on my lunch break. I also buy some of their natural beauty products from the store. I love the Agate gua sha – I use that daily for a facial massage. Littlecompany.com.au

abroad

9 LCD, LA High-end designer fashion meets LA streetwear. We recently launched Nagnata at LCD, too! Shoplcd.co

10 Kith, NY & LA They have the best sneakers! I stop for kicks every time I'm there. Kith.com

11 Dover Street Market, Tokyo, London & NY A favourite for aspirational and up-and-coming designers. Doverstreetmarket.com

12 Vintage shops, Tokyo Japan has the most incredible vintage stores and I would often travel there for inspiration – it's where I source my best vintage denim and workwear. My three fave stores are Rag Tag, Nude Trump and Dog.

13 Cisco & the Sun Home, Bali Handmade Balinese ceramics with a Japanese wabi-sabi aesthetic. This beautiful label by my friend Cisco makes up most of my kitchen homewares. Ciscoandthesunhome.com
