

ST. AGNI

PHOTOGRAPHY LYNDEN FOSS

St. Agni is your divine destination for leather and suede accessories in the heart of Byron Bay. Designed in Australia by owner Lara Blumette, the luxurious, handcrafted collection includes handbags, wallets, clutches, footwear, jackets and more. Each distinctively simple piece is striking on its own, or as an understated accessory for a big fashion statement. Meanwhile, the cool showroom – accented by ‘invisible’ white hanging frames, wood furnishings and fresh greenery – is chicly designed to let the styles do the talking.

NEWRYBAR MERCHANTS

Newrybar Merchants invites you to adorn your home with exquisite furnishings from some of the top artisans and curators of the region. Located just 15 minutes from Byron Bay, the collective is a converted 1890s home with a provincial yet refined ambience only fitting for the old world village it's set in. Sought-after décor includes the fashionable homewares of renowned designers/stylists Shannon Fricke and Mr. Jason Grant; cutting-edge floristry by Beautiflora; botanical clay products of Nikau, and much more.

POP & SCOTT + PAMPA

PHOTOGRAPHY VICTORIA AGUIRRE

Byron Bay recently became every home decorator's dream, with the launch of a Pop + Scott showroom in conjunction with Bangalow textile brand, Pampa. A celebration of artisan pieces the shop woos interiors addicts with handcrafted indoor/outdoor furniture, lighting, homewares, pots, bedding, artworks and more. Pampa also showcases their selection of woven rugs, throws, cushions and prints. Other coveted collections include Anchor ceramics, Den Holm sculptures and Malia Grace jewellery.

MISTER ZIMI

PHOTOGRAPHY MING NOMCHONG

Bold, adventurous and relaxing all at once, Mister Zimi clothing is the kind of statement you'd want to make on holiday, feeling free to be yourself. So, it's no wonder the clothing label – with everything from ultra bright, maxi dresses to punchy, patterned jumpsuits – has opened its doors in carefree Byron Bay. The shop embodies a Mediterranean getaway vibe, with exotic 'basket' lights, rose-washed walls and tile accents. "It's a feel-good experience," confirms operations manager Christina Beaumont. Like the clothing itself.
