INFORMATION

SUBLIMATION

Sublimation is the process of dying a design into the material to create something truly unique. Long lasting and durable, this method allows for complete customisation. Where you see this icon, the product is fully customisable.

MINIMUM ORDER QUANTITIES

All of our products have a minimum order quantity (MOQ). The MOQ varies from product to product, however these are both practical and realistic for our customers. Please see the individual product page for more information.

OTHER CLOTHING

What we have put together in this catalogue is the most popular products that we sell in the football market. We can also provide items like team hats, hoodies and tech t shirts. Packages can also be offered to teams at discounted rates if multiple items are being purchased at once.

ORDER PROCESSING

We work with you to create a design that you and your team are happy with. Then you collect orders and sizes, once these are submitted we provide you with an invoice for your order. Once payment is received we then start processing your order and it is delivered straight to you.
