Install Seat Cover

Start with the seat back cover.

Un-do all velcro and slide it over the headrest with the long tab towards the front.

Start from the side of the headrest as shown, rather than pulling directly down.

Push the flap between the seat back and bottom.

Turn the knob clockwise to move the seat cushion forward to make it easier.

Tuck flaps on the side between the cushion and metal frame.

Make sure that the bar on the side of the seat comes through the cover as you work it down the seat back.

Push flap between seat back and bottom.

Turning the knob at the bottom of the seat clockwise to extend the seat will give more room bottom.

Pull flap tight and secure to the hook-and-loop at the back.

Pull the flap at the bottom tight and secure behind the cover.

At the top, fasten the tabs below the headrests inside the cover.

Put the headrest cover on. Starting on one side goes smoother than pulling straight down!

Pull the seat bottom cover on.

Make sure that the cover is above the adjustment bar on the seat bottom.

Fasten the headrest flaps inside the back of the headrest cover.

FINISHED!
