If you order and purchase products with registration, upon registration you declare that you are older than 18 years, are aware of and accept this GTC and other policies and regulations published on our website, and you give your consent to manage and process your personal data as described in our Privacy Policy.

If you order and purchase products without registration, you may complete the procedure only if you declare that you are aware of and accept this GTC, and you give your consent to manage and process your personal data as described in our Privacy Policy

Upon registration Nanushka sends an automatic email to you confirming your registration.

You shall provide information about yourself that is true, accurate, current and complete in all respects, in the course of registration and purchase. Should any of your registration information change, please notify us immediately by changing your details under your profile information.

In case of invalid or non-existent data the contract with Nanushka shall be null and void. Nanushka excludes its liability in case you purchase goods and/or use our services with another person's data. Nanushka is not liable for damages that occurred due to the fact that you forgot your password or such password became available to a third person out of the scope of the responsibility of Nanushka.

Nanushka shall not be liable for late delivery if it was caused by incorrect and incomplete data provided by you.

Please protect your password and user's name while Nanushka is not liable for damages that occurred due to the fact that your password and/or user's name could have been available to third parties outside the scope of Nanushka's responsibility.

To ensure that the shopping procedure is simple and secure, Nanushka uses Secure Socket Layer (SSL) technology.

4.2 Placing an order

After registration you can enter our online store and begin shopping. You can choose the products to be purchased, the colour, the size and the quantity and put the products into your cart.

Nanushka provides the name and description of the products along with a photo in the webshop. A slight difference can exist between the photo and the product itself. Nanushka is not liable for the differences between the photo of our product on our webshop and the real appearance of the product.

You can check the content of your cart by clicking on the "Cart" icon. It is possible to delete the product by clicking on the "Remove X" icon or correct the quantity of the product in your cart, by clicking onto the white button under the "Qty" column. Items in your cart are not reserved and may be purchased by other Clients.

You may purchase one or multiple items in the same order and purchase procedure.

In a case when you have a discount code, you can enter that code into the "Discount code" field and click on the "Apply" button. Then the purchase price will be reduced by the discount amount in case of qualifying items. Important: make sure that you actually added the discount to your order as we are unable to apply discounts once an order is finalized.

By clicking on the "Proceed to checkout" button, you can start the payment procedure. First you should give your shipping address, such as first and last name, shipping address and telephone number.

You can enter your billing address, which can differ from the shipping address.

The next step is to select the shipping method. During checkout, the shipping fee will be calculated automatically on the basis of the shipping address according to our Shipping Policy. You can choose between two payment methods. You can pay with your credit card using Adyen to complete your order or use your PayPal account. All transactions are secure and encrypted. Credit card information is never stored by Nanushka. Payments are made based on your selected shipping destination, either in EUR, HUF, or GBP. Please check the currency settings for your chosen shipping country for more information.

By clicking on "Complete order" button you can pay the purchase price of the cart according to the chosen payment method. When placing your order, the purchase price, the shipping fee and all other applicable fees (if any) will be indicated that you have to pay to receive the products.

After placing an order and successfully completing the checkout process, you have to be redirected to an order confirmation page and Nanushka sends you an order confirmation email without delay, but not later than within forty-eight (48) hours from the time of the order. Usually, this message is shown in the webshop window after the payment method was successfully completed, with the wording "Your order is confirmed". Such email contains your order's summary.

Nanushka is not liable for late confirmation if the confirmation delay is due to a false or incorrect email address provided by you during the registration process, or your email account is not able to accept messages because your inbox is full. This confirmation email is not an acceptance of your order, it is only a confirmation that Nanushka has received your order.

Acceptance of your order shall be completed when Nanushka sends a shipping notification email to you to confirm that the items have been sent to you.

When you would like to continue your shopping in the webshop after placing an order, click on the "Continue shopping" button.

5. Purchase information

The default currency in the webshop is dependent on the selected shipping destination.

Purchase prices include value added tax (VAT) in accordance with Hungarian tax rules, but do not include shipping fees. Shipping fees are displayed separately based on your shipping destination.

All purchases are made in the default currency of your shipping region. In case your bank account is in a different currency, then your bank might include some additional exchange. We are not responsible for possible exchange fees in these cases. If you are unsure about the procedures your bank is following in case of such a transaction, we suggest contacting your bank for further information.

Charges on your bank statement will appear as "Nanushka.com".

In case we introduce special sale prices, we provide detailed information to our Clients in relation thereto.

If clearly incorrect purchase prices are indicated in our webshop, e.g. an incorrectly low purchase price is indicated caused by an eventual system malfunction, Nanushka shall not accept the order and shall not deliver the product at such incorrect purchase price. In such a case we offer to deliver the product at the correct purchase price to you, and you are entitled to withdraw your order regarding such product. The order confirmed by Nanushka at an incorrect purchase price shall be deemed as a null and void contract.

Nanushka accepts the following types of payments: PayPal or Adyen. Payment can be made by American Express, Visa, Visa Electron, Visa Debit, Visa Delta, MasterCard, Maestro debit cards, and any other methods which may be clearly indicated in the webshop from time to time.

If the issuer of your payment card refuses to authorize the payment to Nanushka, we shall not be liable for any delay or non-delivery.

The total amount to be paid includes all costs on the basis of your order and the confirmation email. The invoice shall be sent to you in the parcel alongside your purchased item(s).

6. The fulfilment of the order, delivery

The delivery of the products is made by Nanushka worldwide through the courier services of DHL and UPS. Nanushka is also liable for customs clearance procedures. We ship worldwide, except for the Russian Federation, certain regions in Bahrain, and North Korea . For more details see our Shipping Policy here.

In case of returning defective items, the shipping fee is paid by Nanushka and a pick-up is organized by Nanushka. Nanushka's couriers deliver the new product in the course of replacement of defective items. In this case, the shipping fee and the customs clearance fee are paid by Nanushka.

When the product has been proven to be defective, Nanushka shall pay back the whole amount of purchase price to you in the same payment method as the original payment was made, including the shipping fee.

In the case of exchanging or returning products to Nanushka, we offer free returns on orders that meet the free shipping threshold. Otherwise, the Client must cover the costs of returning products to Nanushka. However, please note that we are not accepting returns outside of the EU via regular post, please contact our Client service if you'd like help with choosing the right delivery company for your return shipment.

The new product chosen by you for exchange, will be delivered to you by Nanushka's couriers and the delivery fee is paid by Nanushka. However, you can only request an exchange for the same product in a different size.

Nanushka reserves the right to reject any confirmed orders, for example when the item is out of stock due to inventory errors, or its condition does not satisfy our standards regarding its quality. In such a case Nanushka will inform you without delay. In this case, Nanushka shall refund the whole amount paid by you for the item(s) we are unable to fulfill without delay, but not later than thirty (30) days.

When any defect occurs in our webshop in relation to products or prices, Nanushka maintains its right to correction. In this case Nanushka informs you about the new data without delay. You can then confirm your order once again, or any party is entitled to withdraw from the contract.

We may, in our sole discretion, limit or cancel quantities purchased per person. In the event that we make a change to or cancel an order, we may attempt to notify you by contacting the e-mail and/or billing address/phone number provided at the time the order was made. We reserve the right to restrict multiple quantities of an item being shipped to any one Client or postal address.

Nanushka is not liable for the case when its suppliers do not fulfill or essentially modify their obligations towards Nanushka. Nanushka reserves the right to partially or wholly refuse the confirmed orders, after consulting with you.

For further information regarding shipping and return fees, please see our Shipping & Return Policy at Illink!

7. Right of withdrawal

You can announce your right of withdrawal within fourteen (14) days of receiving your original order without reasoning. You announce such right in an expressed statement sent to the Client Service Team (customercare@nanushka.com) within the above fourteen (14) day deadline. Read more about our Return Policy here.

You shall send back the item to us without delay, but within the initial fourteen (14) days upon delivery. If your order is not applicable for a free return label, then make sure to keep the proof of mailing of the parcel.

The deadlines above shall be regarded as being complied with if you send your statement or the item before the fourteen (14) days has expired. As Nanushka receives the returned item, a quality control procedure shall take place in order to determine the appropriateness of the returned item. The provisions of Shipping & Returns Policy, especially point 2.1.2 shall apply.

Unless your order is eligible for a free return, you will be responsible for return shipping costs. Shipping costs are non-refundable unless the item is defective. We recommend you obtain a proof of postage and use a trackable shipping service or purchase shipping insurance. We are not accepting returns sent via regular post from outside of the EU.

We shall refund the price paid for the returned item once it is received by us. We shall not refund such shipping fee, which was chosen by you and was not in line with our usual shipping method. The refund shall be made in the same way as the original method of your payment was made (PayPal or Adyen).

You will receive a written notification via email that we have received your returned item. Any item returned exceeding the fourteen (14) day deadline will not be eligible for a refund and will be shipped back to the sender.

You are not entitled to exercise the right of withdrawal when the item was prepared especially upon your own instructions, or on your expressed demand, or in case the item was unambiguously personalized to you.

The right of withdrawal cannot be exercised by a non-consumer entity, i.e. an enterprise, namely such entity which acts in the scope of its profession, independent occupation or its business activity.

8. Liability for products

Please note, that Nanushka is not liable for damages resulting from natural amortization, defect or negligent use, abnormal consumption or misuse or any other treatment that is not suited to the product description.

8.1 Liability for defective items (in Hungarian: kellékszavatosság)

In case of defective performance (in Hungarian: hibás teljesítés) you are entitled to make a claim for defective items against us on the basis of the Hungarian Civil Code.

Upon your request, you are entitled to make the following claims:

If an item is defective due to a manufacturing fault, we will offer to repair the item or exchange it. If it cannot be repaired or the same item is not available, you are entitled to a proportional price reduction or to have it repaired by yourself or a third party and we pay for the repair, or to a full refund (i.e. the purchase price along with the shipping fee).

You are entitled to modify your chosen claim, but you are responsible for the costs imposed by this modification, except it was caused by us.

You shall inform us about the defect without delay, but within two (2) months from the date of its discovery at the latest.

Within the first six (6) months from delivery you shall inform us about the defect and confirm that the item was provided by us. Within such six (6) month deadline there is no other condition to make your claim on the basis of the liability for defective items.

After the expiry of the above six (6) month period, however, you are required to prove that the defect discovered by you has already existed at the date of delivery.

After the expiry of a two (2) year period following the date of delivery, you are not entitled to make any claims on the basis of the liability for defective items.

8.2 Liability for defective products (in Hungarian: termékszavatosság)

If you are a private person purchaser, you shall also have a right to make a claim against Nanushka for defective products as described in this clause 8.2. Please note, however, that under Hungarian law you need to choose between your rights described in clause 8.1 and clause 8.2, i.e. making a claim against Nanushka because of defective items (in Hungarian: kellékszavatosság) or defective products (in Hungarian: termékszavatosság). You are not entitled to make a claim against Nanushka on the basis of both clauses.

If a product is defective, you are entitled only to choose to have it repaired by us or require us to exchange the product. You shall inform us about the defect without delay, but within two (2) months from the date of its discovery at the latest. In case of a defective product, you are required to prove the defect of the product. The product is deemed to be defective only if (i) it does not meet the quality requirements applicable by law to the particular product, or (ii) it does not have the characteristics set out in the description of the product delivered by us.

You are entitled to make your claim against us within a two (2) year period following the date of delivery.

8.3 Non-consumer buyers

Please note, that the above provisions set forth in points 8.1 and 8.2 are applicable only to consumers. Consumer is a private person acting out of the scope of his/her profession or his/her business activity. To non-consumer buyers different provisions of the Hungarian Civil Code shall be applied.
