

ELLC
UNIT 10

Snow and Snowmen

The Related and Rhyming Book for Unit 10: Snow is no longer available. If you cannot locate the book described in ELLC Book B for this unit, the authors suggest the following replacement book.

Title:

Snowmen At Night

Author and Illustrator

Author and illustrator: Caralyn Buehner and Mark Buehner

Publisher & ISBN Number

Dial Books for Young Readers, 2002
ISBN : 978-0803725508

NEW BOOK DESCRIPTION: Have you ever built a snowman and discovered the next day that his grin has gotten a little crooked, or his tree-branch arms have moved? And you've wondered . . . what do snowmen do at night? This delightful wintertime tale reveals all! Caralyn Buehner's witty, imaginative verse offers many amusing details about the secret life of snowmen and where they go at night, while Mark Buehner's roly-poly snowmen are bursting with personality and charm. (Amazon)

VOCABULARY CHANGES:

(Words in red are replacement words. Other words remain the same.)

Snowy	Sledding
Winter	Skating
Crunch	Fell
Footprints	Cold
Snowballs	Hot
Patterns	Sipping
Lines	Wonder
Snow angel	Anxious
Night	Twice
Day	Height

Language Notes and Language Forms

- Note: The words “Patterns” and “lines” do not appear in print in the book selections. The illustrations and stories provide ample opportunity to describe and target these words.
- “Prepositions for the Unit remain the same.
- Language forms remain the same

PA Groups:

Phoneme/Letter remain the same

Change in Day 2 for PA: rhyming words for the Unit. New words:
tall/all fright/night/height/fight
Dark/park places/races
Twice/ice hill/thrill so/go

ELLC Circle Time:

No changes necessary

Learning Centers:

No changes necessary

Themed Art

No changes necessary