

ELLC
UNIT 21

Gardening

The Rhyming Book for Unit 21: Can I Help? is no longer in print. If you cannot locate the rhyming book described in ELLC Book B for this unit, the authors suggest the following replacement book.

Title:

In a Garden

Author and Illustrator

Author: Tim McCanna

Illustrator: Aim'ee Sicuro

Publisher & ISBN Number

Simon & Schuster Books for Young Children, 2020

ISBN 978-1-5344-1797-7

In a Garden is a descriptive rhyming adventure detailing the occurrences in a garden on the hill in a city. This story is filled with rich vocabulary and a cadence that demands this story be read aloud. The stages of life in the garden are laid out in beautiful pictures capturing both the growth of the plants but also the seasons of the garden. This book provides many opportunities for discussion of science concepts.

VOCABULARY CHANGES:

Replace the following vocabulary words with the words in red:

Hoe-seedling

Sweeping- shimmer

Hose- root

Mowing- breeze

Lawnmower- nectar

Handshovel- bloom

Watering can- light

Watering- bursting

Prepositions and Language Forms

Prepositions and language Forms remain the same.

Under questions:

Remove "Can I ___" from the list.

Under is+ing:

Remove the example "He is mowing" and replace with "bursting up and out".

PA Groups:

Phoneme/Letter remain the same

Rhyming word replacements for this unit:

Hill/trill

Toil/soil

Wide/hide

Bright/light

Breeze/trees

Day/way

Shoot/root

Ground/sound

Snails/tails

PA Day 2

Read the unit rhyming storybook In a Garden to the class.

The remainder of Day 2 PA group remains the same.

ELLC Circle Time:

Circle time E:

*Remains the same with the exception of this correction of the first sentence of this activity.

The main storybook for this unit is about helping.

Learning Centers:

No changes necessary

Themed Art

No changes necessary