

Categories

A category is a group of things that go together because they have something in common. Can you find words from Rudy's story that fit in these categories?

Color Words

Words that describe
How things move

Words that describe
Feelings

Words that refer to a prize for winning

Rudy says: "Can you create another category from this story or from another story you like?"