The Journey

A step by step guide to the process of organising your wedding flowers with us.

STEP ONE

After you're initial contact, we will arrange a consultation with you, either in person, or online so we can discuss your ideas

STEP TWO

We will send you a first draft quote for your wedding flowers and wait for your feedback

STEP THREE

Once you are completely happy with the details - we will ask for a deposit of 25% of the total amount. Please note you can still make changes to your quote after the deposit has been paid.

STEP FOUR

4 weeks before your wedding day we will get back in touch and request the final balance is paid. Please feel free to contact us in between for advice and updates.

STEP FIVE

On your wedding day - we will be there for you - delivering and installing as required and disappearing before your guests arrive

STEP SIX

If required we will also return the following day to dismantle and remove any items that are on loan from us along with any leftovers that are not wanted.

Other Venues

We have listed only a selection of the venues we like to work at.

If the place you have chosen is not listed here, and is local to us, the chances are we have been there a good many times and will be familiar with the layout.

Marquee Weddings

Staying closer to home

As a long established florist we know most of the marquee companies in the area very well.

A marquee wedding gives you scope for lots of creativity with regards to your decor.

Marquee companies usually like to install their structures several days in advance of your wedding which gives you (and us) plenty of time to get creative.

Church Services

From simple pew ends to free-standing floral structures - we can help you decorate the church inside and out.

With our large collection of props available for hire including urns, plinths, free standing arches and hanging hoops - there isn't much we can't accommodate.

What We Offer

Bouquets

When considering your bouquet - its useful to think about your preferences with regard to the following:-

- Shape - posy, trailing, teardrop
- Style - lose and wild, assymetric or neat
- Colour - neutral, vibrant, muted tones or a seasonal mix
- Do you want your bridesmaids to match the brides bouquet or to compliment it.

Not that we have favourites - but here are some of our lovely brides...

What We Offer

Button Holes

Not to be over looked in the excitement of the flowery planning - these bouquets for the boys can range from a single bloom to a tiny bouquet of little stems.

They usually mirror the colour choices made for the bouquets but not always.

Often the groom will have a slightly different buttonhole to the rest of the groomsmen.

What We Offer

Table-scaping

The secret to good table-scaping starts with having the right supplier for catering and equipment hire.

Once you've chosen your cloths, cutlery, crockery and glassware, it's all about the flowers and (if your venue allows them) - the candles.

We have our own collection of vases, bud vases and pots which we are happy to lend out. Equally if you have found your own pot perfection - then bring them to us and we will do the arranging.

What We Offer

Making an entrance

And then there is the photo that sits on your mantelpiece.

The one captured by your photographer as you step out of the church for the first time as a newly married couple.

Creating a floral arch creates a fantastic backdrop for beautiful photographs not only of the bride and groom but also of the guests.

If you would like a statement arch - please chat to us about the various ways in which we can achieve this for you.

What We Offer

Glitter balls and dangly bits

Have we mentioned - how we do love to decorate a venue?

If you fancy a free standing arch, hanging chandeliers, greenery ceilings, wild and woody staircases, frothing mantelpieces, pretty lych gates, coordinating cars, buses, dogs and horses - do mention this to us and see how excited we get.

Sustainability and British Flowers

Midway through 2023 we delivered our first plastic and floral foam free wedding.

We are now working towards making all our weddings plastic and foam free.

If this is something that is important to you - please make us aware of this as it can affect our planning.

We also work with selected British flower growers.

If you would like us to use all British flowers, please mention this as early as possible. British flowers are much more seasonal than their foreign cousins and it's important that we advise you on availability.
