

Product Safety Recall

Inkari Recalls Alpaca Push Toys

Plush alpaca toys handmade in Peru with alpaca fleece:

- Inkari Mini, Small, Medium, Large - all designs
- Excludes the XXL Alpacas (these do not use detachable eyes)
- Sold between: 1 November 2020 to 31 July 2025

Reason for Product Recall

These products do not comply with the mandatory standard for toys for children.

The small plastic eyes may separate from the toy and become a choking hazard for children.

There is a risk of serious injury or death from choking if the plastic eyes separate from the toy and small children swallow them.

What To Do

1. Stop using these products immediately and keep them out of reach of children.
2. Return them to the retailer where they were purchased for a refund.
3. Do not dispose of the product, you must return them to the retailer if possible.
