ABOUT US

Traditional family values drive everything we do at Prabha, and this means truly caring about quality and service. We are manufacturers of the very finest kitchenware and tableware that can be found anywhere in the world today.

Prabha is an aesthetic label in continuous search for beauty in living space. Using a subtle combination of the finest materials, age old decorating skills and hand craftsmanship with modern cutting edge technology; we strive to achieve perfection in the manufacturing of all of our products. The rich heritages of our classical designs are epitomized by the modern era craftsmanship when we at Prabha set unsurpassed standards in the quality of our tableware and kitchenware. These classical designs of finest modern craftsmanship are produced at our factory in Delhi, India.

Our company ethos is evident in all areas of the business, and we are proud that everyone who works at Prabha today pulls together to achieve the common goal.

With the tableware and kitchenware collection of Prabha, it is an opportunity to express your desires and your personality every time you make up a table. With the guarantee of having an impeccable quality of manufacture, every freedom is given to you to play the infinity with the styles, the materials or the colors. Whether you are a follower of the most contemporary design or whether you prefer a "in good taste" classicism, whether you opt for the sobriety or for the exuberance, our numerous models will allow you to find every time the perfect harmony. And the result, warm, harmonious, will always be up to your expectations: the faithful reflection of your lifestyle.
