

Grammy Awards (1960):

Album of the Year: "Come Dance With Me!"

Best Vocal Performance, Male: Frank Sinatra for "Come Dance With Me!"

Best Arrangement of Voices: Billy May for "Come Dance With Me!"

Best Arrangement, Instrumental and Vocals: Billy May for "I Get a Kick Out of You"

Grammy Hall of Fame:

"Come Dance With Me!" album was inducted into the Grammy Hall of Fame in 2000.

These awards and recognitions highlight the impact and significance of the album "Come Dance With Me!" in both the music industry and popular culture. The album's success further solidified Frank Sinatra's status as one of the iconic figures in the history of American music.

"Come Dance With Me!" is a popular song recorded by Frank Sinatra, released in 1959 as the title track of his album of the same name.

The song was written by Sammy Cahn and Jimmy Van Heusen, who were frequent collaborators with Sinatra.

The album "Come Dance With Me!" marked a departure from Sinatra's earlier ballad-heavy albums, showcasing a more upbeat and swing-oriented sound. The title track, along with other songs on the album, exemplified Sinatra's mastery of interpreting and delivering upbeat, rhythmic tunes.

The album itself received critical acclaim and commercial success, earning several Grammy Awards, including Album of the Year. Sinatra's rendition of "Come Dance With Me!" remains a classic in his repertoire and is often associated with his lively and charismatic performances.

Some of the lyrics from the song go:

Come dance with me

What an evening for some Terpsichore

Pretty face, I know a swingin' place

Come on, dance with me

If you're a fan of Frank Sinatra's music, "Come Dance With Me!" is certainly a tune worth listening to for its catchy melody and Sinatra's charismatic vocal delivery.

Frank Sinatra's album "Come Dance With Me!" received several awards and accolades following its release in 1959. Here are some of the notable awards that the album and its songs received:

Frank Sinatra Come Dance With Me!

- 1 Come Dance With Me 2:32
- 2 Something's Gotta Give 2:39
- 3 Just In Time 2:25
- 4 Dancing In The Dark 2:26
- 5 Too Close For Comfort 2:35
- 6 I Could Have Danced All Night 2:41
- 7 Saturday Night 1:55
- 8 Day In, Day Out 3:25
- 9 Cheek To Cheek 3:05
- 10 Baubles, Bangles And Beads 2:46
- 11 The Song Is You 2:43
- 12 The Last Dance 2:12

Released 1959

Producer Dave Cavanaugh

For more info e-mail us:
info@highdeftapetransfers.ca
or visit our website:
www.highdeftapetransfers.ca

Frank Sinatra - Come Dance With Me!

Frank Sinatra - Come Dance With Me!

