LongHouse Reserve Student Annual IV
June 2011

Using the sculpture and gardens as inspiration and resource, students who visited LongHouse this year were invited to participate in Student Annual IV. Guided by their teachers, they interpreted their visit(s) in prose, poetry, mixed media, craft, photography, painting, architecture, design and sculpture. We also had the dance Elements, a multi-award winner, performed on site.

88 individual and 9 collaborative prizes were awarded to Kindergarten through Grade 12 students from the following schools: Amagansett School, Bellport High School, Bridgehampton School, Brookhaven Technical Center, East Hampton High School, Eastern Suffolk BOCES, Half Hollow Hills West, John M. Marshall Elementary School, Longwood High School, Montauk School, Patchogue-Medford High School, Riverhead High School, Rocky Point High School, Ross Lower and Ross Upper School, Sayville High School, Southampton Intermediate School, Springs School, Tuckahoe Common School and West Babylon High School.

More than 325 students, superintendents of schools, principals, teachers, school and LHR Board Members, families, guests and members of the press were in attendance at the June 13th event where winning entries were displayed and student winners were presented their prizes. Congratulations to those who participated and thanks to all for a job well done! A big thank you goes to our volunteer LH School Docents for inspiring all they led.

Speak to me, Leafy Green,
The person I am, and all the people I’ve been,
Autumn reds and water’s blue,
Reflecting only nature’s hue,
I rebound with spring,
On bare feet,
Anew.

Peter’s Pond
I reflect as if I’m a mirror
I am a fishing tank with no top
I am as soothing as yoga
I am a body with creatures in me
I am as beautiful as a full moon

I smell the sweet smell of lily pads
I feel fishes swimming through me
I hear water flowing
I feel frogs jumping across my lily pads
I feel raindrops making me grow
I hear people saying how beautiful I am

Hoop Garden
I am a garden, you look at me as an amazing tunnel from Alice and Wonderland.
As you walk along me,
you smell me as a brand new perfume.
I'm a garden,
full of nature, like a forest,
beautiful as a beach.
You can hear,
the peaceful singing of the birds,
trying to make you fall asleep.
My rough flowers,
are rough as sandpaper,
And little bumpy rocks.
The flowers are dancing,
to the soothing wind,
as if the wind was a song.

By Luz Espinosa
Drops of water fall into a black hole
Nobody knows where it goes
Gallons and gallons
Reflected water being sucked in Never stopping always dropping
Gallons and gallons
Calm and still until it reaches the edge
Gravity pulling down searching for the ground
Gallons and gallons
