

Classic Hanger Gifts for Real Estate.

Why Hangers

Everyone has a wardrobe. In fact, quite often we have suits and expensive designer clothes hanging on very poor quality hangers. When people move into a new home they typically have aspirations for a new beginning, a new improved quality of life and of course a beautiful home. Henkerman Hangers are for everyone. They are made from high grade solid timber and have been designed to not only look after your clothes in the best possible way, but to also make your wardrobe look fantastic. They will certainly be a welcome addition for any new wardrobe.

The Gift

Henkerman has put together special Gift Sets especially for the Real Estate Market. You can be sure that each and every one of your customers will value this excellent quality gift. Something they will always use and remember you by. The Henkerman quality will be a reflection of you and definitely set you apart. Your gift will be an elegant way to signify the completion of your successful business transaction. It will act as a talking point and help you increase word of mouth about your overall service.

Our Hanger Range

Henkerman has hangers in a Men's 45cm Range and a Women's 38cm Range. Men and women typically have different shoulder widths and therefore should not have the same hangers. Our current collection offers a Mahogany Finish with Gold Fittings for Men and a Washed White Finish and Pearl Nickel Fittings for Women. Both are truly gorgeous. Our Collections are comprised of 3 hanger types: coat hangers, shirt hangers and pant/skirt hangers. This means that you can have individualized and matching wardrobes which look fantastic.

Before and After Henkerman

Testimonial

“I am really happy to add Henkerman to my range of gifts at settlement time. It is something very unique, I actually really look forward to giving them. Most people have never received hangers as a gift, yet this is something everyone uses everyday. I feel the uniqueness and quality of the gift really represents the great value I know I delivered to them at each step of our property journey together. This is not something you eat or drink and throw away. Henkerman hanger gifts will generate positive story telling and word of mouth about our business relationship for years to come - long after we have all moved on to our next challenges and new projects in life. ”
