STONE WASHED OSTRICH SHIN RECTANGLE MIRROR

Leather made from ostrich leather is prized not only for its durability but also for its unique patterns. While the "belly leather" is more familiar from its extensive use to make handbags, boots & belts, the "shin leather" offers a unique take on this exotic hide. Each mirror is handcrafted in Cape Town, South Africa of sustainably-sourced top-stitched ostrich shin leather. The beveled edges of the mirror contribute time-honored elegance.

Due to the nature of the materials, no two mirrors are exactly alike. Can be hung horizontally or vertically.
