Ginger

We have exclusive global rights with our Ginger partners in Peru and China, to supply high quality grade Ginger products. With many health benefits that date back thousands of years, ginger is one of the most popular herbs on the planet.

Ginger from China

The ginger harvested has a moderate spice that is refreshing with a citrus zing. The stock is grown far away from industrial areas to maintain its purity and make sure that the quality is perfect. Additionally the mountain region environment allows the ginger to soak up natural spring water.

Ginger from Peru

The golden Peruvian ginger has a full spice and intense flavour. Based in the the jungle region, the farm thrives in tropical rain and warm weather. The elevated surroundings allow for seamless drainage, a critical component to successful ginger farming.
