Travel Directions

From WAIKIKI to the Waipio Sports Complex:

- 1. Take any one way street leading towards the hills (north) from Waikiki Beach to Ala Wai Boulevard. Ala Wai Blvd is one way west. Turn onto Ala Wai Blvd. Stay on Ala Wai Blvd to McCully Street. (Look for first bridge on the right side) Take McCully Street (right turn) to the north, towards the hills, going south will return you to Waikiki. Stay in left lane till you cross overpass for Interstate H-1 freeway. Signs will direct you to H-1 westbound.

- 2. Take Kuhio Avenue or Kalakaua Avenue eastward (toward Diamond Head) to Kapahulu Avenue. Turn north on Kapahulu Avenue and follow Kapahulu Avenue to H-1 westbound.

- 3. Once on H-1 west bound, stay in MIDDLE lane or second lane from the left. Just beyond the Highway 63 (Likelike Highway) exit, H-1 will split. The right lane will have a choice of H-1 or Highway 78 (Moanalua Freeway). Both routes will get you to the fields. A slightly quicker way to get to the fields is via Highway 78. Eventually Highway 78 will merge back into H-1. Just prior to the merge, you will see the brown-colored steel Aloha stadium ahead and to the left. If you are on Highway 78, stay in MIDDLE lane over Red Hill and past Halawa Valley. Note the speed cameras on the overpasses. Just beyond the Halawa exit, Highway 78 merges into H-1.

4. If you are on H-1 instead of Highway 78, do not panic. Stay on H-1, go past the Airport exit, and keep heading west. You will merge with traffic from Highway 78 just after the Aiea exit.

5. Once the two highways merge, stay in the 2nd lane from the right on H-1. You should exit the freeway at EXIT 8B called Waipahu Exit. Stay in the left curving lane. Note the signs to the Waipio Soccer fields. Turn left at the first traffic light. This will be the Waipio Point Access Road. Follow this road to the Waipio Soccer Complex.
