

Deliver a Journey Report

Hopefully, your Everyday Warrior Journey has been amazing! Taking the time to ponder about and record your experiences will help you learn and grow even more.

D&C 122:7

...know thou, my son, that all these things shall give thee experience, and shall be for thy good.

Write a Journey Report

Writing a Journey Report can bring more power into your life because as you ponder, the Spirit will bring to your mind the things that the Lord wants to teach you. As you receive these things of God, you grow in light and truth.

John 14:26

But the Comforter , which is the Holy Ghost , whom the Father will send in my name , he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you.

With the Spirit teaching you, you are becoming a mighty warrior! The Lord knows your experiences because He experienced them with you, and He will help you if you ask. This is the power of Christ! So, take time to pray and ponder about what to write in your Journey Report.

Revelation 12:10

And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night.

Journey Report Details

For your Journey Report, answer these five questions. Write in report format by using your own words to include what each question is about in your answers.

1. How has remembering that you are a Warrior for Christ helped you?
2. What was your experience like putting on the Whole Armor of God?
3. How has trying to live the Hero's Creed changed your life?
4. What differences have you noticed as you Commit your Way unto the Lord?
5. Throughout your Journey this year, what have been your greatest Victories?

Example

I share my Journey Report with you here as an example to get you thinking about how you will write your own. Your report will certainly be quite different though. Write your report in your own way, expressing your feelings and sharing your own personal experiences.

Everyday Warrior Journey Report by Sarah Nyberg

Remembering that I am a Warrior for Christ has been wonderfully transformational for me. When I think of myself as Christ's warrior, I feel powerful because I know that He is supporting me in doing what's right. It has given me a broader perspective to see my life's mission, rather than the day to day struggles.

As I began to realize what Putting on the Armor of God really was and taking the time to actually put the principles taught from each piece into practice I have grown spiritually. I have come to know my Savior through striving to have on a belt of righteousness by repenting often.

I have gone into battle against the enemy by living the Hero's Creed. It has made me think more about others and strengthened my relationship with them. They are learning that I am someone who cares and that they can count on me, and I feel closer to them through serving.

Committing my way unto the Lord has changed my perspective on so many things. As I begin to feel frustrated with circumstances, I recognize that God has a plan and I can trust Him, then I feel peace. I often pray for the Lord to guide me in what to do, and what to say, and even what to focus my thoughts on. I love knowing that He cares and as I put my life in His hands I feel more calm about my future.

I have had some great victories in my Everyday Warrior Journey. One of the greatest was when I was being attacked by Satan through contention with someone, I began to feel anger, resentment, fear and darkness. I went to my room and prayed, then I used the word of God in scripture to remind me of how God loves me and that I have nothing to fear. I surrendered those negative feelings I was having to Jesus and felt His love for me and for the other person.

Another great victory that I had was in choosing to be gracious. Someone who used to be my friend had been saying mean things to me, accusing me of things that I did not do and talking badly about me to others. I decided that rather than retaliating, I would apologize and try to make peace with her. Even when I apologized she kept bringing up false accusations, so I kindly corrected what was not true and just kept apologizing. As I did, I have been able to forgive and feel love for her.

I have loved the Everyday Warrior Journey, it has brought the light of Christ into my heart and my life!

Deliver a Journey Report

After you have taken the time to write your journey report, deliver it by email to everydaywarriorjourney@gmail.com

Remember that, in addition to reporting weekly, you will need to send a Journey Report in by the deadline in order to earn the Everyday Warrior Journey reward.

Your Journey Report is a wonderful way for you to testify of the blessings that come from living the principles of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, and how He has revealed Himself in your life.

Isaiah 53:1

Who hath believed our report? and to whom is the arm of the Lord revealed?

We look forward to reading your reports and celebrating your victories with you!
