Highland agave brings strong fruity citrus notes and a little hot pepper into both the delivery and in the finish. Lowland agave brings firm earthy flavours of the agave plant into the flavour profile. This unique combination creates a tremendously balanced tequila with complexities and nuances. Promotions Period 2 BAM +20 Period 3 LTO $10.00 Period 4 BAM +20 Period 6 BAM +20 Period 8 BAM +20

  Available Period 1  Tasting Note Siempre Tequila Anejo is hand crafted and produced in small batches using 7 year old Highland and Lowland Agave, stone oven roasted for 3 days. Distilled using French Alambique Pot Stills and aged 24 months in French oak. On the nose, vanilla and caramel are enlivened by a hint of spice and underpinned by cooked agave. On the palate there is a smooth harmony not unlike what shows in some very mature cognac. The finish is long, creamy and deeply complex. Pairs well with cakes, semi-sweet chocolate, mousses, custards, steak and lamb.

	Boutari Moschofilero (WHITE)	12	12	172387	$14.05	Awards and Media
Tasting Note – Wine & Spirits (90 points) Like many 2012s, this is very ripe, redolent of honeysuckle, roses, orange and white pepper, but it stands apart for its balance, a combination of fullness of texture and bright, clear freshness that lends the wine balance and precision. Promotions							90 Pts Wine Spectator 2015 2014 Vintage "Top 100 most exciting wines 2015"

	Boutari Agiorgitiko (RED)	13	12	172148	$14.05
Tasting Note from Wine Align – Steve Thurlow (87 points): This wine is from Nemea in the Peloponnese where the red wines are made from Agiorgitiko, (A-YOR-YI-TI-CO) probably Greece's best indigenous red grape. It is excellent value for a soft food friendly red not unlike Chianti or Barbera from Italy. Expect aromas of red berry fruit with mild spice and floral notes. The palate has soft fruit balanced by dry tannin and gentle acidity. Very good length. It is an ideal food wine for a wide range of meats and cheeses. Best 2014 to 2017. Tasted January 2014. Promotions

	Kir Yianni Paranga Red	12.5	12	392175	$15.35
Tasting Note from Stelios Boutari: Paranga is a refreshing and jammy combination: a supple Merlot in the background with a touch of a very spicy Syrah under the spell of a light and more easy-to-drink Xinomavro. Its ruby red color and herbal undertones are alluring. Its remarkable acidity gives rise to a complex bouquet of cinnamon, clove, and green pepper, and a long finish. It is made to be consumed young. Serve it cool as an aperitif or along with barbecue and spicy food in general. Promotions							TEXSOM IWA 2017 2015 Vintage BRONZE MEDAL TEXSOM IWA 2015 2013 Vintage BRONZE MEDAL
