HIGHGATE TABLE LAMP

Modern Heritage Lighting Collection

Range Description

Distinguished by their striking silhouettes, our collection of lamps will add a unique charm and sophistication to any room. It is only through an intimate and tactile exploration of each design that the true beauty of each piece reveals itself.

Product Description

Echoing the clean lines and silhouette of a Grecian torch, the Highgate Table Lamp is a sculptural lighting piece that balances softness and structure. Crafted from solid antique brass with a decorative finial top and spherical base detail, it's finished with a pure silk shade for a softly diffused glow. As our shades are made from pure silk they may exhibit subtle variations and naturally occurring slubs, adding to their unique charm and heritage character. A natural pairing to the Highgate Wall Light, this antique brass table lamp is ideal for elevating console tables, bedsides or living rooms.

Also available as a wall light verison.
